Dedication

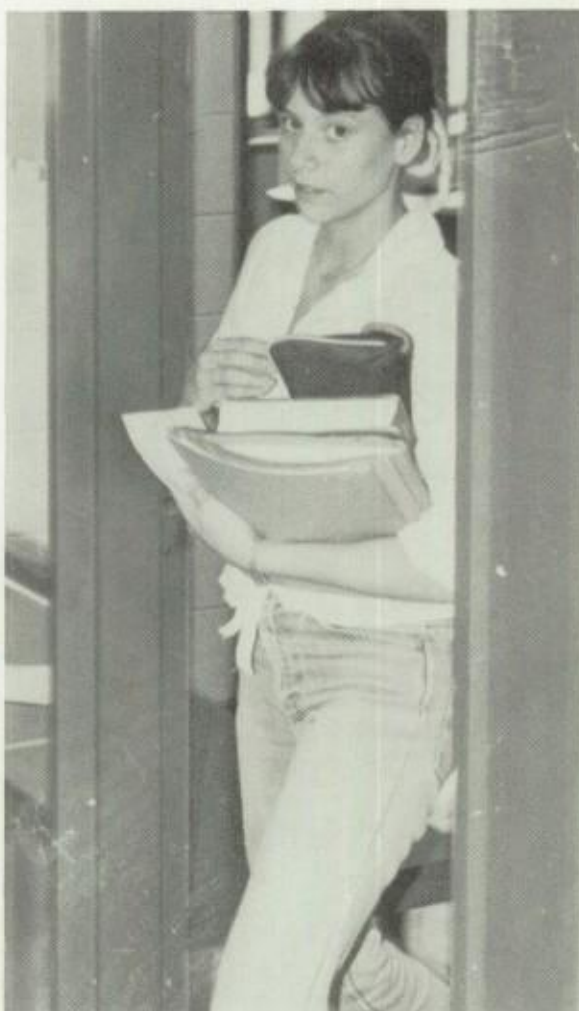

Mr. John Jeffers has been with the Superior Board of Education since 1947. He has taught drivers education at Senior High since the 1968-1969 academic year. Mr. Jeffers is known around school for his pleasant personality and unusual sense of humor.

Mr. Robert Glockner has been at Senior High since the 1972-1973 academic year. He is most well known as the "Faculty Clown", and for his plunger fights with Mr. Watzko.

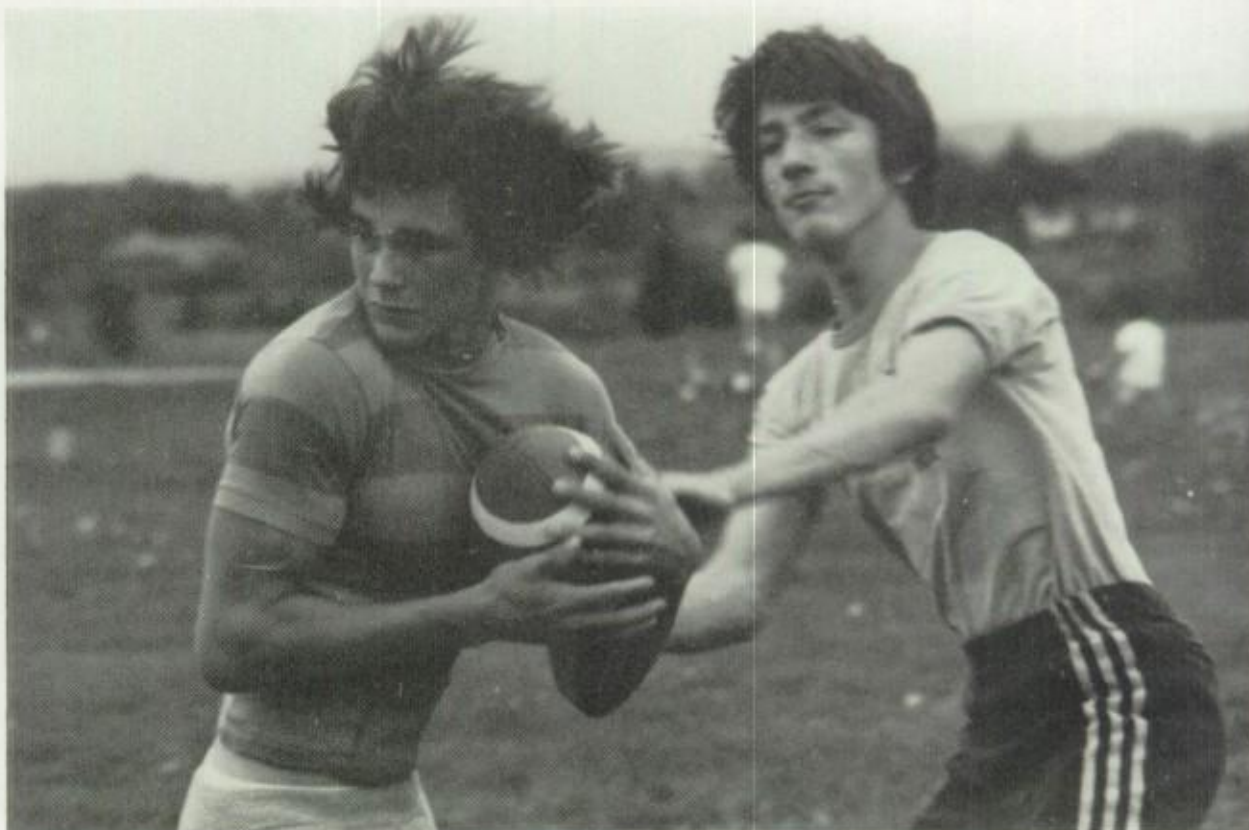

We, the 1980-1981 Lacedaemon Staff, hereby dedicate our yearbook to these men in appreciation for making SSHS a more enjoyable place for the students and staff.

Autumn begins another school year, new relationships, and another winter. We feel excited and often overworked. Our lives take a new turn as we get closer and closer to that inevitable, magical day-----graduation.

Winter means shorter days and longer nights. We are looking forward to Christmas vacation so we become lazy and restless. Weekends are a time for recreation as we enjoy skiing, snowmobiling, skating, and sliding.

Sports

Fans

Loyal, Loud, Encouragement, Excitement, Enthusiasm, Spirited

Within the sports section of the book, two pages have been set aside to show how important the fans really are to the athletic department. This year was especially memorable not only because of the successful football team, but also because of the organization of "Arnie's Army". "Arnie" is James Arneson, one of the senior goal-tenders for our varsity hockey team. This group was lead by Willie Radke, with his humorous cheering.

Baseball

Mitch Lindstrom led the 1980 Spartan baseball team with a batting average of .442 and a total of 19 hits, while Jon Bouvine came in second with a batting average of .360 and a total of 9 hits.

Lindstrom, who struck out 54 opposing players and walked only 12, was also the leading pitcher with 4 wins against 2 losses. Mike Ramer came in second in pitching with 3 wins and no losses, walking only 3 and striking out 7.

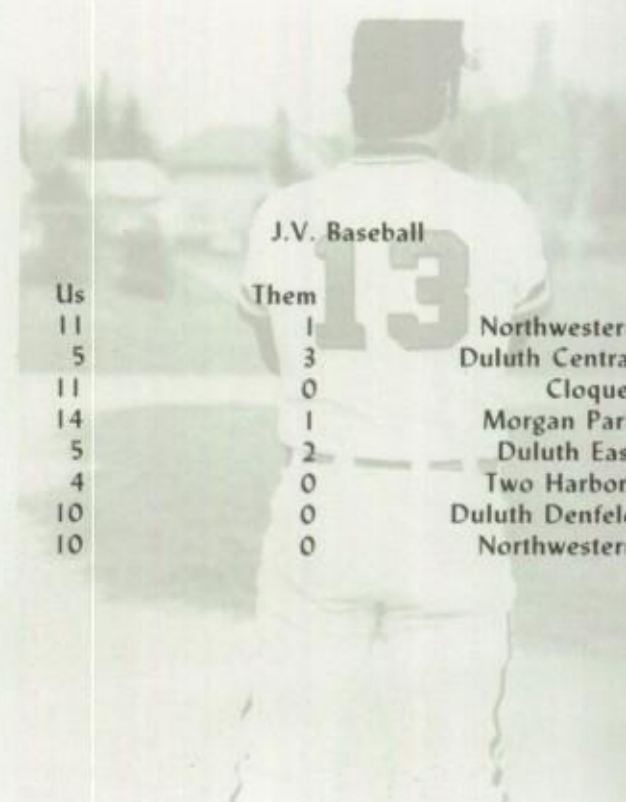

Spartan pitchers struck out a total of 116 players while they walked only 24.

Paul LeBel and Dan Ursin were the managers for the Spartan team, which ended the season with a 10 win, 5 loss record. Mr. Ron Orlandi was the head coach, aided by Mr. Steve Olson, J.V. coach.

The Spartans out scored their opponents 87 runs to only 27 runs.

The J.V. Baseball team, coached by Mr. Steve Olson, had an undefeated 8-0 season. Captains for the 79-80 season were Shaun Kavajecz and Mike Strum.

Tennis

This was a rebuilding year for the SSHS boy's tennis team, as Dave Will was the only starting member of our state tournament team. Sophomores Steve Rickstrom and Brent Millard tied a school record in doubles with a season mark of 11 wins and 5 losses. "With the loss of only 2 seniors, Dave Will and Casey Coleman, the upcoming season looks brighter than last year," claims Head Coach Mike Pahlen.

Mary Moody and Cindy Scott, captains of the 1980-81 girls tennis team, led their team to a 6 win, 4 loss season. Terry Larson was named most improved player, while co-captain Mary Moody was named most valuable player. Moody and Scott both attended the sectional meet, but did not advance.

1. Cindy Scott and Mary Moody ham it up for the photographer. 2. Front row: Beth Keller, Terry Larson, Colleen Cochrane, Leah Grittner, and Sharon Waite. Back row: Coach Ron Orlandi, Erin Torrey, Mary Jo Christensen, Cindy Scott, Mary Moody, and Carolyn Rickstrom. 3. Steve Rickstrom poses for the photographer. 4. Tom Walsh returns a violent serve. 5. Coach Mike Pahlen, Len Wicklund, Tom Walsh, Steve Rickstrom, David Will, Dave Dhooge, and Mark Tomzak. 6. Melody Kildahl, Mary Christensen, and Erin Torrey relax after practice. 7. Sharon Waite and Leah Grittner mopping the water off the court.

Each moment of the year
has its own beauty,
And in the same field,
it beholds, every hour,
a picture which was never seen before
and which shall never be seen again.

Nov. 19, 1962 - May 24, 1980

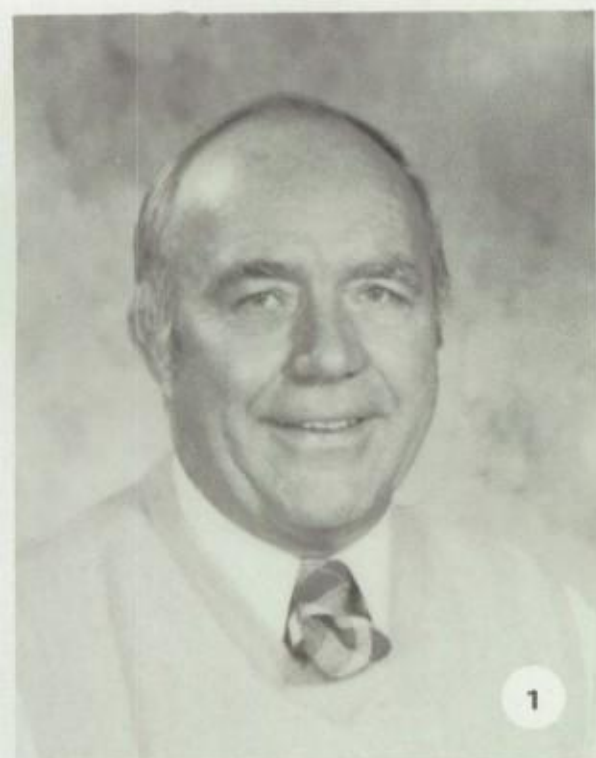

Our hearts are full with love for friends, though we never know how dear they are to us until it's too late.

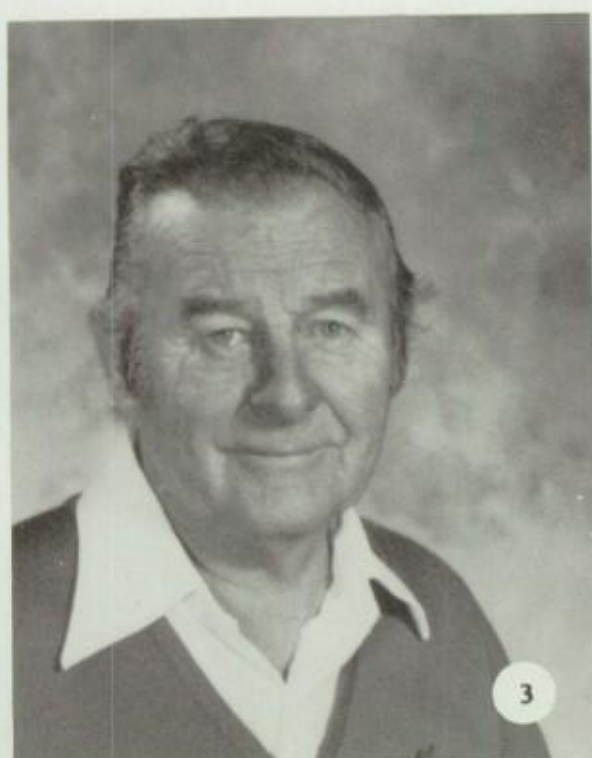

We have to learn to accept what we can't change, no matter how painful it seems. Though friends may be gone, we must always leave a place for them in our hearts and minds.

Until we meet them again, and we will meet them again, we must tip our lives with light and happiness and fill them with memories of the good times that are in the past, but will always live in us.

THE LADDER

Remember years back
When you looked up the ladder,
The climb, and impossible task?
At the top was a goal.
A distant blurred vision.
And to reach it was only a dream.

Then slowly you climbed,
Though your arms did get weary.

You kept plugging on
One rung by one,
And tried to back down
But you couldn't.

The higher you climbed
The greater the pressure.
Though anxiety pushed from all sides

The goal became nearer, and suddenly clearer —

It scared you, but still you climbed on.

Today there remains but one
rung to ascend,
And soon on the edge of that goal you shall find
Your feet, though unsteady, will wander at will
In quest of a base where firmly to stand.

You'll search on this level
Spread your wings to expand,
But perhaps you'll find peace
here,
Seek contentment no more.

Others will look to levels much higher,
Discover dreams like never before.
They'll continue their search
and climb the great ladder
To a higher, more eminent goal.

A Fantasy In Frost

The 1980 Christmas Dance, which took place on Monday, December 22, from 7:30 to 10:30 p.m. in the cafeteria, featured the band "FANTASY" which tied in with the theme "A FANTASY IN FROST". Some of the decorations at the JSA sponsored dance were: a white bridge across the circle with Christmas trees and a wreath, a large poster of the theme and others with snowflakes, snowmen on windows, a disco ball and Santa in the link. All the decorations and the music helped create "A FANTASY IN FROST" for all who attended. Posing pictures were taken by Roy Meronek. Refreshments were also served.

1. The theme for the Christmas dance was "FANTASY IN FROST". 2. Couples on the dance floor slowly dance to the music by Fantasy. 3. Frosty snowmen were painted on the windows. 4. Laura Campbell and Darrell Magdzas dance a slow dance together. 5. Chaperone Mr. Nick Baker is caught in action with his handy paper punch. 6. Members of the band Jim Hunter and Brian Pahos entertain at the dance. 7. One of the decorations at the dance was Santa in the link. 8. Rich Heytons and Jackie Zell pause on the bridge and pose for a picture. 9. Jeff Andersen and Missy Anderson get refreshments and take a break. 10. Kim Olson and Chris Ronchak take a rest from dancing.

Graduation

Graduation is a time of anticipation, excitement, relief and partying. It's an ending and a beginning. After 12 fun, eventful and hard working years, the class of 1980 finally made it.

Five hundred and fifteen students (one of the largest classes at Senior) graduated on June 12th at a 7:30 ceremony.

Dennis Murphy gave them their final speech and Penny Provost (class president) spoke to her fellow classmates, wishing them well and asking them to be careful in their celebrating so the class would all be able to attend the 10th reunion. After they received their diplomas, they filed down the hall and out into the start of a new beginning.

1. The Spartan Singers sing a last farewell to the graduates. 2. The wide angle view of the seniors graduating class of 1980 is huge. 3. Senior class president Penny Provost addresses her fellow classmates at the ceremony. 4. A few seniors stand as their scholarships are announced. 5. An apprehensive sea of hats awaits the receiving of their diplomas.

Florida Trip

The Superior Senior Marching Band was invited by Disneyworld to represent Wisconsin in their parade. Through Stage Band's four dances, three submarine sandwich sales, a spaghetti dinner, a car raffle, a magazine sale and a donation from the city, the band members had enough money to go. They flew to Florida and performed at Disneyworld, Sea World, and Circus World receiving top honors at Disneyworld.

For fun, they also visited "Wet 'n Wild". Some of the memories mentioned by the band were everyone getting "fried to a crisp" at "Wet n' Wild" and also riding the world's largest wooden rollercoaster. For some, this was also the first time they flew on an airplane. The chaperones were Ms. Sally Jewson, Mr. & Mrs. Don Sweeny, Mr. & Mrs. Ed Kossak and Mrs. Cheryl Goad. "A fun time was had by all."

1. The trombone section marches at Disney World. 2. Jeff Hagen enjoys himself at "Wet-N-Wild." 3. Pinocchio shows off in the parade. 4. Our band marches down "Main Street". 5. Seventy-eight people on a 50 passenger bus?!? 6. Dave Rankila eats another ice cream cone. 7. Paula Anderson and Kathy White clown around at circus world. 8. Keith Wiitala catches a few Z's on the plane. 9. Mrs. Goad poses on the merry-go-round at Circus World. 10. Jean Sullivan peeks at the photographer. 11. Mickey waves a farewell to our marching band. 12. One of the many spectacular sites at Disney World is the castle.

Spartan Fiesta

Spartan Fiesta, under the supervision of Mr. Crowley, was held May 27 in the Senior High gymnasium. The Art department, with Mr. Orlandi, Mr. Labernik, and Mr. Gedde, was in charge. They displayed and sold ceramics, jewelry, woodcuts, watercolor paintings, oil paintings and acrylics. Also put on display by the Art department was a fluorescent room. Performers for the event were the Spartan Singers, Stage Band, DECA, who put on a fashion show, and Drama, who presented the audience participation children's play Cinderella, Cinderella.

According to Mr. Orlandi "These people added much to the fiesta mood." Items by all clubs and organizations involved were sold.

1. Rachel Fredrickson and Toni Reder sell goodies for German Club at the Fiesta. 2. Sharon Pollock and her fellow Stage band members perform a few numbers for the program. 3. These were just two of the excellent paintings and pictures on display. 4. This silk screen T-shirt was also on display. 5. Sue Rochon, Joe Ferris, Nancy Bee, Mr. Barrette and Peggy Strom sold goodies for DECA. 6. The audience watches as DECA gives their fashion show.

Wash./N.Y.

April 27 - May 4 were the dates of the Annual Washington/ New York trip sponsored by Senior Social Science. Among the many places visited during the trip were the White House, the Capitol building, where Representative Dave Obey was met, the Smithsonian Institute, the National Cathedral and Wall Street, along with the Empire State Building, the Metropolitan Museum of Art, Greenwich Village, and the Watson Building. Chaperones were Mrs. Louise Manion, Ms. Joy Bashara, Mrs. Eloise Scott, Mrs. Audrey Pollari, Mrs. Hapsaun Smith and Mr. William Rhenstrand. According to Mr. Rhenstrand, "A splendid time was had by all."

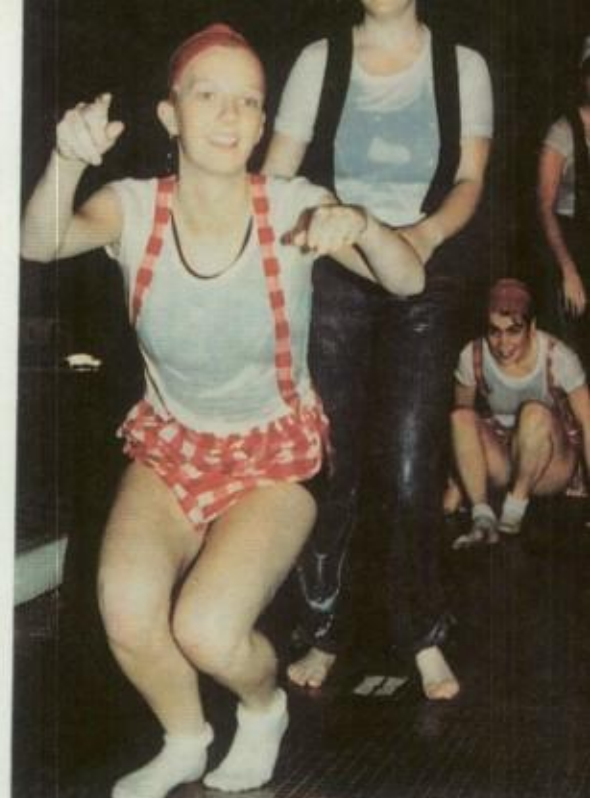

1. Julie Chicras, Kathy Tucker, Penny Provost, Kris Marquart, Wendy Modeen, Kathy Ellis, Jeanne Moran, Andy Lisak, and Jim Green pose in front of a statue at the capitol. 2. Picture taker Julie Chicras gets her picture taken. 3. A picturesque view of the capitol building seen on a sunny day in Washington D.C. 4. Our students are resting on the plane as they fly to the city of New York. 5. The National Archives is one of the many interesting sites the students visited.

The 1980 Watershow was performed on May 7, 8, and 9 in the Senior High pools. Originally, watershow was mainly dance and swim routines, but last year Teresa Ronning added a different act to the show by doing a roller skating routine. The Theme was "Magical Moments of Movies" which meant all the acts must have pertained to movies. the decorations added to the theme and everyone who participated in the show created their own design on a star. The advisors were Mrs. Shirley Gillman and Mrs. Margaret Hoadley. Lisa Martinson and Debbie Olson were the student advisors.

"Blitz The Bluejackets"

Grub Day, Mr. Irresistable Day, Jersey Day, Western Day, and Spirit Day were just a few of the activities that took place during the 1980 Homecoming Celebration. Many people participated in those activities including working on the many floats that appeared in the parade which circled the New Mariner Mall on Spirit Day. Other events highlighting Spirit Day were the assembly, at which Mr. Baker and Mrs. Berggren won a "pie in the eye"; the snake dance, which began at Pilgram Lutheran church; the football game, which the Spartans won by the exciting score of 21-0 against the Hibbing Blue Jackets; and the dance at which Karen Gotelaere was crowned queen. Greg Brown won the title of Mr. Irresistable. French Club, whose float theme was "We'll Tower Over The Bluejackets", Construction Technology, whose float theme was "Hammer The Bluejackets" and Drama Club whose float theme was "Let's Straightjacket The Bluejackets" won prizes for Most Creative theme, Best Theme, and Most Humorous, respectively.

1. Jon Hetzel points out Spartans smashing victory over the Bluejackets. 2. SSHS cheerleaders add pep to the assembly with a formation. 3. The float "We'll Tower Over The Bluejackets" was designed by the French Club. 4. Murray Johnson sells memorabilia for Homecoming 1980. 5. Pam Smerud and Ann Zaun prepare themselves for the Pom Pons and Twirlers routine during the assembly. 6. One of the lucky winners of the "pie in the eye" contest was Mr. Baker. 7. The cheerleaders stand back and get a good laugh as the football players try to win the tug-o-war between the players and the cheerleaders! 8. First place winner of "Best Theme" was Construction Technology with this float. 9. "Super Spartan" was one of the many floats in the parade. 10. Murray Johnson shows off the Senior Class float. 11. The DECA store was held up by a couple of "bandits" on Western Day. 12. Mr. Phil Fernjack, M.C.'s the assembly. 13. The float "Bluejackets Shell Fall" prepare for the parade in the back of the Mall. 14. Coach Hoff introduces the football players and gives an inspiring speech on the successful season. 15. The SSHS Marching Band headed the parade which marched through the new Mariner Mall parking lot. 16. A Homecoming poster was hung in the link to help students remember to keep up the SPIRIT!

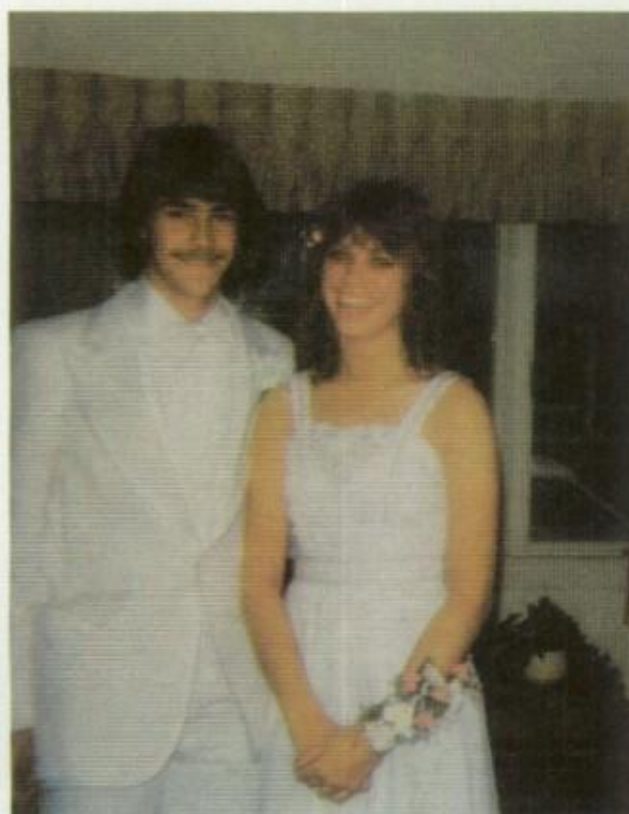

Traces Of Love

"Trace's of Love" was the theme for the (1980) Junior - Senior Prom, which was held in the school cafeteria. The grand march started at 7:30 with Mike Dettle and Kris Moen being Crowned as King and Queen. The dance started at 8:00 p.m. and ended at 11:30. Chesire Cat was the band providing the music. Decorations for the Prom were created by the Jr. class. Some of the decorations were a bridge across the circle, a fence and an arch on the dance floor, and a rainbow in the gym. Pictures were taken by Roy Meronek.

1. Julie Olson and Glen Johnson prepare to leave for the dance. 2. Carol Santori and Tom Walsh pose for a picture. 3. Jerry Frasier gets refreshments from Cindy Ward, Jeanine Munsell, and Tracy Hart. 4. Becki Johnson and Scott Warring relax for a moment. 5. Jean Sullivan and Jim Crawford pause on the bridge. 6. Organizations
Hard work, extra hours, devotion, activity, fun!

All extra-curricular activities besides sports make up organizations, such as the musical groups, special members of the marching band, and clubs.

Those people who put in the many hours of outside work are rewarded by the feeling they get after a job well done.

Y.F.U. Students

Merete is from Aabenraa, Denmark and is staying with Mr. and Mrs. Van Horn. Some of her interests are rollerskating, going to McDonalds, being with friends, going to football games, singing and dancing. She said the thing she misses most from home are Danish Rolls. Her Quote: "Life is what you make it."

Poul is from Herning, Denmark and is staying with Mr. and Mrs. Johnson. One of his likes which he had never done before is skiing. His others are volleyball, track, peanut butter, and steak.

Boris is from Hamburg, Germany and is staying with Mr. and Mrs. Kyromaki. He likes the countryside here in the USA and volleyball. His quote: "I am missing the German bars. I am not missing my parents, and I think that Americans are cannibals because they are eating Hamburgers!"

Maria is from Ahus, Sweden and is staying with Mr. and Mrs. Rickstrom. She says she really likes it here and she participated in Basketball, Model U.N. and Softball. Her quote: "Thank you to everyone that has helped me to make my stay here so terrific."

Per is from Hobro, Denmark and is staying with Mr. and Mrs. Ericksen and Family. He says he likes skiing, roller skating, girls, Arlo Guthrie and he misses his Danish Lunches. He also stated that hamburgers are not cheap here, but many other things are-like jeans, which cost 50 dollars or more in Denmark. His quote: "A man can be free without being great, but no man can be great without being free."

Carlos is from Cali, Columbia and is staying with Mr. and Mrs. Johnson. He enjoys painting, drawing, horseback riding, and roller skating. He visited New York and said he liked that part of the USA. He also stated that he misses home sometimes. His quote: "If you see someone without A smile, give them one of yours."

Snow Week

Snow Week '81 was kicked off by Dress Up Day Monday February 9, followed by Hat and Glasses Day Tuesday. Wednesday was Jersey Day; Thursday was Western Day. Togas were the order of the day Friday which was highlighted by a pep assembly at the end of the school day and a Snow Week dance which followed the basketball game. Reigning as King and Queen were Rick Kennelly and Roseann Wasko; Prince and Princess were Mike Day and Lorna Modeen; Duke and Duchess were Pat Murphy and Sue Roubal. Other activities throughout the week were the Sophomore bake sale, the Junior class selling carnations, and the J.S.A. selling valentines. The outcome of Friday's basketball game with Hayward was Superior 42 Hayward 72.

1. King Rick Kennelly and Queen Roseann Wasko. 2. Kris Berg buying a valentine. 3. A sign advertises the upcoming Snow Week. 4. An applause meter was used at the assembly to measure the spirit of the different grades. Seniors won. 5. Prince Mike Day and Princess Lorna Modeen. 6. The King dances with his Queen while the Prince dances with his Princess. 7. Spectators watch as royalty is announced. 8. Debbie Packard and Robin Newnum are attired in their togas for Friday's assembly. 9. Duke Pat Murphy and Duchess Sue Roubal. 10. Heidi Bonneville modeling her hat for Hat and Glasses Day. 11. Jeanne Amys and Cindy Scott show their SPIRIT by wearing jerseys on Jersey Day. 12. Toni Reder shows off her hat in the link on Tuesday. 13. Pom Pon girls Patti Rozowski and Patsy Koski dance to Cupid. 14. Princess candidates Lorna Modeen, Corinne Culliton, Tammy Thompson, Cindy Weichert, and Pam Bouchard.
